

25/5/94

Dear Jim,

Just a note to confirm the details of the proposed open forum on the growth of anti-democratic measures in Glasgow. The date is Thursday, 23rd June, probably starting at 7.30 pm. Bert Moorhouse, a sociologist at Glasgow University, has agreed to speak. A provisional title is 'Glasgow--the construction of a "safe city"'.

I enclose a copy of the finished briefing--I think it may have one or two different bits in it from the one you got. I will get in touch towards the end of next week to firm things up.

Yours,
